Cheryl Przytula joins the Barrett SIR family as a real estate agent in the Concord/Lincoln area of Massachusetts. A retired US Air Force sergeant and southwestern desert native, she understands the unique and often challenging needs of those who relocate frequently.

Born and raised in the Imperial Valley region of southeastern California, Cheryl began her career as a musician under the guidance of her parents at the age of 7. In 1997, she was accepted into the USAF Bands program, embarking on a 20-year military career. Both her military and musical experiences have enabled her to travel extensively throughout the US and internationally to Scotland, England, Australia and Japan. Having lived and worked in Mexico and Germany, Cheryl cultivated an appreciation for diverse cultures, enhancing her ability to assist clients from various backgrounds.

Cheryl first discovered New England during her 6-year assignment to Hanscom Air Force Base in Bedford, MA. She enthusiastically immersed herself in the local culture – learning to row at Community Rowing, Inc. (CRI), participating in the 2012 Head of the Charles Regatta and competing in the CRASH B's. She also became a regular member of Bay Colony Brass and has performed intermittently with numerous local musical organizations.

Upon retiring from the Air Force in 2018, Cheryl returned to Massachusetts to continue her real estate and musical endeavors, bringing with her the Air Force core values of Integrity, Service and Excellence to assist you with your real estate plans. Outside of the workplace, she enjoys animals, motorcycles, various sports, travel and life in general.
